H.S.R. No. 297

R E S O L U T I O N

WHEREAS, On this 31st day of March, 1971, there is indeed cause for the members of the House of Representatives to pause and celebrate a great event in Texas history: 31 years ago today, an outstanding native son was born in the 64th Legislative District which also produces pecans, peanuts, cotton, grain; and other great men; and

WHEREAS, Years later, Lynn Nabers, as he was named, became a student, a state employee, and an attorney-at-law who would take up the business of lawmaking at the State Capitol of Texas; and

WHEREAS, He now has a lovely wife, Mary, and two small sons, Scott and Tim Nabers, and is distinguished as an able member of the Texas House of Representatives in his second session; and

WHEREAS, Representative Lynn Nabers recently passed a major piece of legislation preventing the thrashing of pecan trees on public property; this Honorable Representative ably presented the problems concerned with thrashing public trees when people threw two-by-fours and shoes into trees to try to knock the pecans off before the good Lord could harvest them by natural means without that menacing danger to Texas children of flying boards and shoes; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of the district he serves join with the members of his family and his legislative colleagues in honoring him this special day; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That Members of the House of Representatives of the 62nd Legislature hereby wish the Honorable Lynn Nabers a Happy Birthday and many more years of health, happiness, and successful legislation; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for Representative Nabers; that when the House adjourns this 31st day of March, 1971, it do so in celebration of his birthday, and that following such adjournment, any member may request that the Honorable Representative provide the necessary refreshments for the proper celebration of such a happy occasion.
